THE CHALLENGE

Problem

Corporates invest heavily in engagement initiatives, yet they struggle to connect spending to business outcomes.

No Measurable ROI

Engagement activities are treated as sunk costs rather than investments with tracking.

Fragmented Vendors

Lack of a structured ecosystem leads to operational inefficiency and scattered data.

Missing Linkage

No correlation data connecting engagement activities directly to employee retention.

No Attrition Analytics

Inability to predict flight risk based on disengagement patterns.

Engagement spend exists. Measurable workforce intelligence does not.
